

THE AMERICAN

WHIG REVIEW.

"TO STAND BY THE CONSTITUTION."

NEW SERIES, VOL. VI.—WHOLE VOL. XII.

NEW-YORK:

PUBLISHED AT 118 NASSAU STREET.

1850.

AMERICAN
WALL-PAINTING

BY JAMES LINDNER. 17. 1912. 250000. FINE.

AMERICAN
WALL-PAINTING
BY JAMES LINDNER. 17. 1912. 250000. FINE.

INDEX.

A.

A Few Words about Tennyson, 176.

B.

Bulwer as a Novelist. Change of public sentiment in regard to his merits, 812.

British Policy Here and There. Commerce with America Illustrated, 518. Who feed England? 633.

C.

Congressional Summary, 99, 204, 320, 429.

Critical Notices, 111, 217, 442, 657.

Campbell, life of, 405.

D.

Dedication of Goethe's Faust, Translation, 470.

E.

Everstone, by the Author of Anderport Records, 47, 152.

Education, 87.

G.

General Winfield Scott; his services in the organization of the Army; his conduct of the war in Mexico; embarkation and landing of the troops at Vera Cruz; movement of the troops through the enemy's country; the rights of private property respected; cruelties and disorders suppressed; severity and justice of the military tribunals instituted by the Commanding General, 276.

H.

Hints toward Conciliation. 1. That it be accepted as an established principle, that the power of protecting, ameliorating, or abolishing institutions of caste in a State is inherent in the people of that State alone; 2. That the absence or presence of castes in any sovereignty or territory, asking admission to the Union, shall not be a bar to its admission; 3. That our knowledge of the mode in which the people of any sovereignty, or territory, intend to employ the powers to be guaranteed to them by the Constitution on their admission, in regard to slavery, shall not affect the question of their admission; 4. That the powers of the General Government shall not be exercised in impressing any particular system of laws upon a republican people applying for admission to the Union, 114.

I.

Introduction to Vol. VI, 1.

L

Life of Hon. Samuel S. Phelps, 93.

" Hon. J. C. Calhoun, 164.

" Gen. Winfield Scott, 276.

" E. Geo. Squier, 345.

" Hon. Edward Everett, 484.

" C. B. Smith, 561.

M.

Memoirs of the House of Orleans. Rise and influence of the House of Orleans; aristocratic society in France previous to the great Revolution; Court of Louis the Fourteenth; Madame de Tencin, the mother of D'Alembert; her origin, life, and character; Madame de Genlis, 258.

Memoranda, Ethical, Critical, and Political, 468.

Memoir of the Public Life of Edward Everett, 484.

Morell's Argument against Phrenology, (T. Colder Cooper,) 190.

Memoir of John Caldwell Calhoun, 164.

Mr. George Payne Rainsford James; his poems on America; his patriotism and ardor, 402.

Miscellany, 107, 433, 546.

O.

Our Foreign Relations. Hon. E. G. Squier, Chargé d'Affaires, Central America. Aggressive policy, and designs of Great Britain; Mr. Squier's birth and education; the Squier family derived from Samuel Squier, one of Cromwell's Lieutenants; services of the Squiers, during the Revolutionary war; the unpublished letters of Cromwell, 345.

P.

Political Paradoxes—Parad I, "Ad Valorem;" Parad. II, "Free trade the best;" Parad. III, "Necessity, the tyrant's plea;" Parad. IV, "The best government is that which governs least;" Parad. V., "The people have declared their will;" Parad. VI., "Doctrine of instructions;" Parad. VII., "Men are born free and equal," 2.

Political Miscellany. Suppression of the African Coast Squadron, advocated in England; importance of that measure; importance of the squadron in preventing the increase of slavery in South America; importance to the growing commerce of Africa, 324.

Political Preface, 551.

Pacific Railroad; the Senate Committee's Report in favor of Whitney's plan, 539.

Political Economists. Henry C. Carey; his views, and discovery of the true principles of political economy, 376.

Plain Words for the North, 555.

R.

Review of Allston's "Lectures on Art and Poems," 17.

Review of the "Memoirs of Thomas Jefferson. Edited by Thomas Jefferson Randolph," 33.

Rodolph of Hapsburg, the Consolidator of German Empire; his life and character; manners of the middle ages, 241.

Reply to Correspondents, 113.

Russian Ambition,

Review of the Village Notary, and Memoirs of a Hungarian Lady, 64.

S.

Sonnets to Fill Blanks, 366, 401, 493.

Sonnet, 126.

Sydney Smith's Sketches of Moral Philosophy. (T. C. C.) Philosophy of wit and humor, 388.

T.

The Spanish American Republics. Causes of their failure; Central America; the two parties, Serviles and Liberals; the old Spanish Aristocracy; Monarchs, 337.

The Danish Question, (the test question in European Politics,) 331.

The Tariff of '46. Review of the Letters of the Hon. Abbott Lawrence, 300.

The Genius of Sleep, a Statue by Canova; a Sonnet, imitated from the Italian of Missorini, W. G. Simms, 240.

To the Political Reader. Article on the Danish Question; Remarks on Southern Politics, 225.

The Bible and Civil Government, in a Course of Lectures, by J. M. Mathews, D.D., 511.

Twenty More Sonnets, with a Preface and Notes, G. W. P., 505.

Twenty Sonnets of a Season, 564.

To the Political Reader, 439.

The Great Ship Canal Question; England and Costa Rica versus the United States and Nicaragua, 441.

The Poets and Poetry of the Irish. St. Sedulins; St. Binen; St. Columbeille; Malmura of Othian; The Story of the Sons of Usna; M Liag, Poet to O'Brian, 77, 141.

The Nameless, 181.

The Dead Child, 189.

Thomas Jefferson, 33, 182. Annexation of Territories; Policy of Jefferson, 290. The trial of Aaron Burr; conduct of Jefferson; his hatred and persecution of Burr, 367. His Presidential career, last years of his life, 471.

U.

Uses and Abuses of Lynch Law. Art. II. Murrel, the Land Pirate of the Southwest; his conspiracy; system of enlisting members; all classes of society embraced; Murrel Gang in Washington Co., Texas, 1849, (note); Murrel taken with the stolen negroes; his trial, and partial failure of the prosecution; attempt to Lynch him frustrated; steals Henning's negroes; Stewart accompanies Murrel on his journey; pretends to join the clan; his critical situation; visits the conspirator's Island; Murrel's return home; his arrest; attempts to assassinate Stewart by the clan; Murrel's escape and recapture; attempts to destroy Stewart's evidence; the trial; Stewart springs a mine upon the intended witnesses; Murrel's conviction; Blake takes command of the clan; time for the revolt of the slaves changed, 494.

Unity of the Human Race, 567.

Union or Disunion, 587.

W.

What Constitutes Real Freedom of Trade? (H. C. C.) Doctrines of Adam Smith examined; shown to be identical with those of the Protectionists; misuse of Adam Smith as an authority by the so called "free-traders," 127. Chapter II. Examination and Refutation of the modern English theories of Free Trade; principle from which a true theory of Public Economy may be deduced; agriculture the foundation of national wealth, 228. Chapter III. Doctrine of Adam Smith; mutual aid rendered to each other by the various departments of industry, 352. Chapter IV. The Earth the great machine of production, 456.

Washington Irving and his Writings, 602.